Product Description

High Security Pvc Coated Welded Wire Mesh Fencing Welding Iron Wire Net

Welded wire mesh is welded from superior low carbon steel wire and then galvanized or pvc coated or stainless steel wire and then welded. It features smooth surface, uniform mesh, high stability and great corrosion resistance.

We support personal customization and OEM service. High quality, competitive price and best service are available.

24 hours online service for you. Welcome your inquiry anytime!

High quality raw materials can improve the strength and durability of welded wire mesh. Tiedi Metal chooses high quality low carbon steel wire, which are very strong and toughness. Each batch of TIEDI raw materials is subject to tensile strength test, which ensures that our products maintain the high level in the metal materials industry.

Tiedi Metal uses the specially improved welding machines to ensure opening uniform, welding firmness and flatness. And it not only can improve production efficiency to ensure delivery time of your order, but also reduce production cost to enhance your market competitiveness.

Customisation: welded mesh can be customised to meet specific needs. It can be produced in different sizes, mesh sizes and shapes required to meet the needs of a specific project.
